Mr. Waldron

Your Name: _____

5 Key People (offer analysis as to why this person is important to remember – example below)

|--------------------------|---|
| George Washington | Bad Example: George Washington was the first president of the United States. Good Example: George Washington was a capable leader. As a general, his men followed him into battle under less-than-advantageous circumstances. Later on, he was elected unanimously as the first U.S. president. When he left office, he set several important precedents (the president should only serve two terms, the U.S. should stay out of Europe's wars, citizens should value religion and morality) |
